

ILLNESS IS NO LONGER A DEATH SENTENCE.

TRUST YOUR PHYSICIANS!

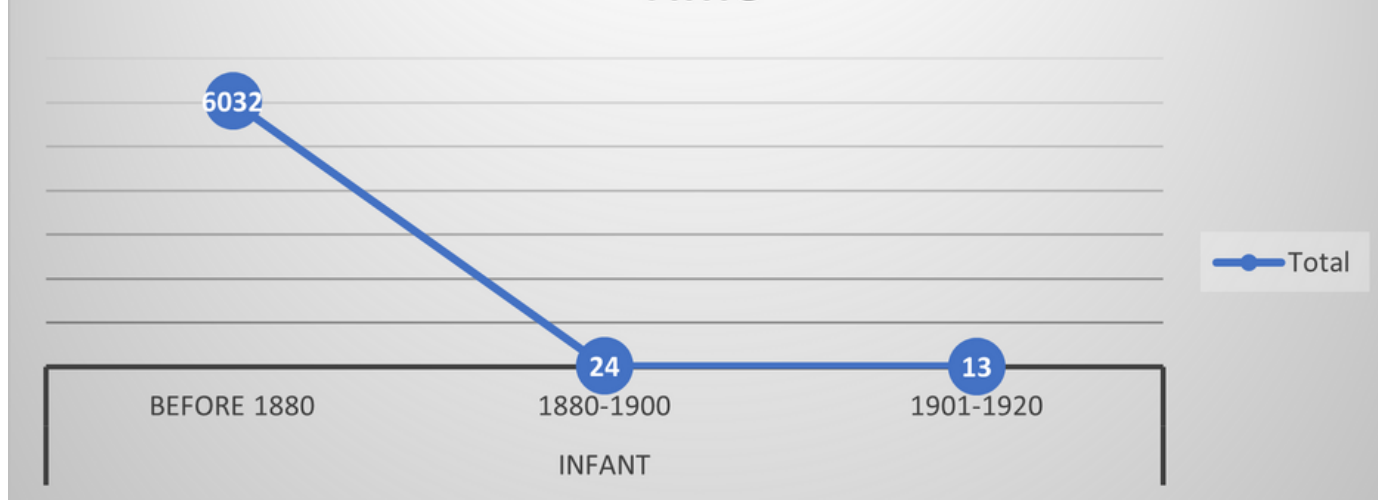

How Illness Related Death has Changed Over Time

Modern Medicine saves lives.

Between 1846-1920 Nashville City Cemetery buried over 5,000 people who died of one of these preventable illnesses.

How Infant Deaths Have Changed Over Time

Science and technology have allowed more and more people to escape infancy over the years to where infant deaths are almost non existent